

The Lord Jesus: A Superior High Priest

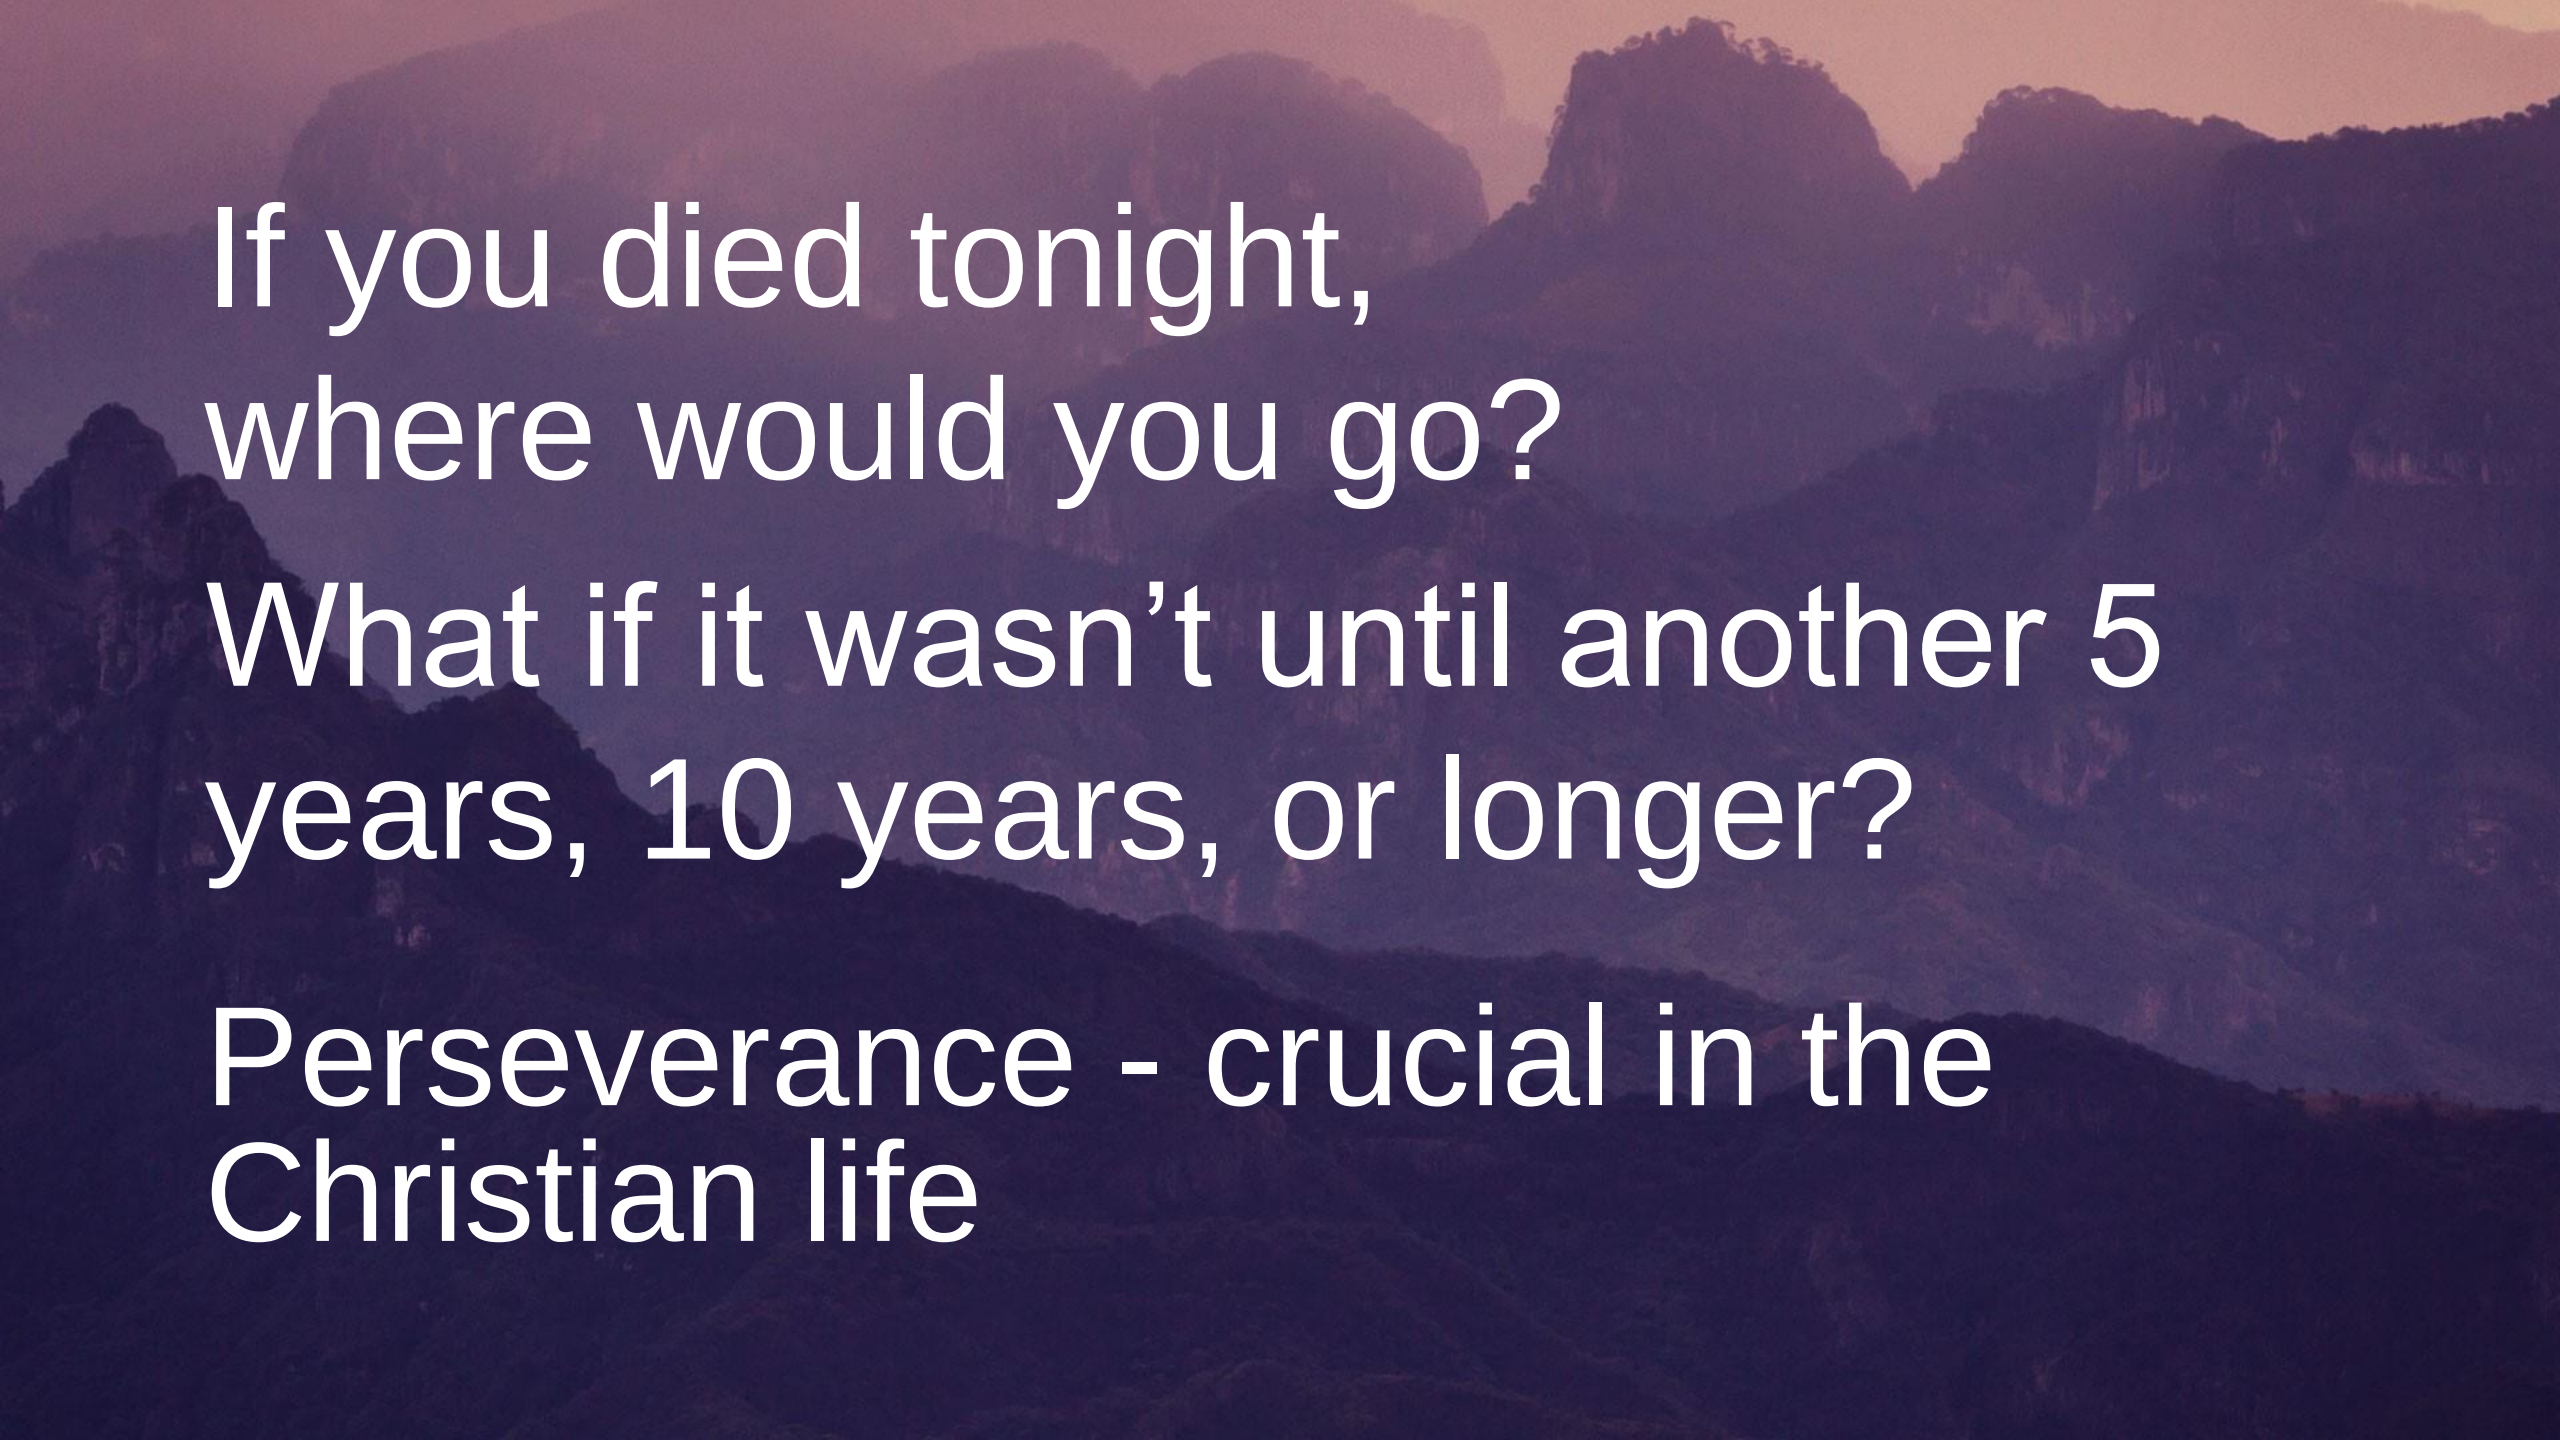

A dramatic landscape of jagged mountains at sunset or sunrise. The sky is a mix of deep purple and orange, with the sun low on the horizon. The mountains are dark and silhouetted against the bright sky, with some peaks catching the low light. The overall mood is contemplative and serene.

If you died tonight,
where would you go?

If you died tonight,
where would you go?

What if it wasn't until another 5 years, 10 years, or longer?

The Extent to which Christ can Save

The Extent to which Christ can Save

He is able to save to the uttermost

The background image is a photograph of a vast mountain range, likely the Blue Mountains in Australia, characterized by their iconic flat-topped peaks. The scene is captured during the 'blue hour', with a soft, hazy light in shades of purple, pink, and blue. The mountains are layered, creating a sense of depth and scale. The text is centered horizontally and vertically over the image.

‘Consequently’ - Priest forever
