

Repent

A wide-angle photograph of a multi-lane highway. In the foreground, a dark grey Audi SUV is driving towards the camera. Behind it, a red Loadtec truck is also driving towards the camera. Further back, a yellow truck and several cars are visible. The highway has a concrete barrier on the left and a dirt shoulder on the right. On the right side, there is a construction site with a large pile of dirt, a crane, and some construction equipment. The background shows a line of trees under a cloudy sky.

Turn round

A photograph of a rural road. In the foreground, a large, olive-green dump truck is driving away from the camera. Further ahead on the road, a small, light-colored tractor is also driving away. The road is paved and curves to the right. The surrounding landscape is green and hilly, with some bare trees and a few small houses visible in the distance. The sky is overcast.
